

This is in regards to the petition by several banks to break the no call list in Indiana. I would like to voice my objection to any petition that allows for telemarketing.